INTRODUCTION:

The Book of Ephesians stands out as the only book of the biblical canon whose congregants are spoken to specifically by our Risen Lord Jesus Christ in the Book of Revelation.

In Revelation chapter 2, verses 4 and part of 5, Jesus Christ says:

“But I have [this] against you, that you have left your First Love. Therefore remember where you have fallen, repent and do the deeds you did at first;”

The believers in Ephesus at that time have fallen from their spiritual heights. Jesus called them to repent- change their minds and turn back upwards toward Him and His love towards them!

John, one of Jesus' apostles while Jesus was on earth, was inspired to write this in 1st John chapter 4, verse 9:

“In this is love, not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son [to be] the propitiation for our sins.”

Also, in verse 19:

“We love, because He first loved us.”

Finally, backing up to verse 8, “...for God is love.”

For far too long we have been pushed to have our focus upon our love for Jesus and our devotion to Him.

Far more important is our focus upon Jesus and His love for us!

- Grace – kindness, favor (5485 charis)
- Saved – healed, preserved, rescued (4982 sozo)

Commentary- because God SO favored us He “enlivened” us with Jesus in Jesus’ resurrection life, joining us in spirit to Jesus! At the root and reason for this: God’s agape-love towards us in Christ Jesus.

Verse 6

“And raised us up with Him [Jesus], and seated us in the Heavenly [places] in Christ Jesus,”

- Raised – lifted up together (4891 sunegeiro)
- Seated – sat together (4776 sugkathizo)

God, Who summed up is “Agape-love” (and is true of each of the Persons of the Holy Trinity: the Father-Creator, the Son-Word, and the Holy Spirit) gives of Himself sacrificially and cares for us deeply.

Seeing God's grace so expressed towards us in Christ Jesus is a great encouragement and comfort to the rest of God's creation to continue with Him.

Jesus Christ crucified for us is the exclamation point of God's sacrificial love and the Highest Honor ever given to anyone; Jesus Christ raised for us from death and seated at God's right hand- always interceding on our behalf- is another exclamation point.

Jesus Christ proves God's grace beyond all doubt!!

Verse 8

“For by grace you have been saved through faith, and not that of yourselves, [it is] the Gift of God;”

Jesus Christ is the Gift of God's Faith!

Inasmuch that God's lovingkindness is better than life,

And that eternal life is knowing God and Jesus Christ,

This indicates that God's eternal lovingkindness in Jesus Christ towards us surpasses eternal life!

Jesus Christ is our Gift-God!

(May all of God's creation experience Jesus Christ!)

- Result – out from (1537 ek or ex)
- Works – tasks, actions, efforts (2041 ergon)
- Boast – brag proudly (2744 kauchaomai)

Commentary- God giving us Jesus Christ did come out from our workings or accomplishments; our efforts did not prompt God to send Jesus.

Therefore, no one can truthfully say that he or she has earned the right to Jesus Christ.

Our Divine right to Jesus Christ has been initiated by God; He had this in mind at the fall of Adam.

Repentance from death back towards Life in God (Christ Jesus) is a Gift of God and from God!

Becoming conceited about ourselves is not good (actually, it is the origin of evil); God in His wisdom made sure to cut it off from us for eternity.

Verse 10

“For we are His (God’s) workmanship,”

- Workmanship – accomplishment (4161 poiema)

- Performed – done by hand (5499 cheiropoietos)

Commentary- circumcision in the natural is a copy of what God does in the spiritual: cutting away of the sin condition in the spirit.

The fact that circumcision directed by God was to the male and not female testifies that the sin condition is transmitted in the natural through the male...

Thus, Jesus Christ was born in likeness of sinful flesh but had no sin in Himself; God is His Father.

Nevertheless, circumcision in the flesh accomplishes nothing except being a sign of the true circumcision in Christ Jesus.

- Law – rules, Mosaic Law (3551 nomos)
- Commandments – injunctions, orders (1785 entole)

The peace in Christ Jesus surpasses all understanding.

Verse 16

“And might reconcile them both in one body to God through the cross, by it having put to death the enmity.”

- Reconcile – completely harmonize (604 apokatalasso)
- Both – one and another of two (297 amphoteroi)
- One – single (1520 heis)
- Body – mystical body (4983 soma)
- Put to death – killed (615 apokteino, apoktenno)
- Enmity – hostility (2189b echthra)

Commentary- Jesus Christ brought peace and harmony between Israelite and non-Israelite peoples through His cross; Jesus killed the hostility among all those who trust in (“believe into”) Him!

The root cause for this great work on the cross accomplished by Jesus Christ is very simple and profound:

- God the Father’s agape-love towards us!
- Jesus’ agape-love towards God- His Father!
- Jesus’ agape-love towards us!

The sufferings that Jesus Christ endures for our sakes proves the suffering that God would endure for our sakes...

- Futility – vanity, emptiness (3153 mataiotes)
- Mind – understanding, reason (3563 nous)

Commentary- apart from the agape-love of God towards us in Christ Jesus existence itself means nothing. Separated from God even being a so-called “god” in a universe all to yourself is worthless.

Herein is the key difference between Jesus Christ and the Devil: for Jesus (even though He always was, is, and always will be God the Word) what mattered most above all was to have His God; for the Devil, being a so-called “god” mattered more than having God.

Jesus Christ valued the agape-love of God His Father (and that of the Spirit of God) above all else.

- Go down – to set (1931 epiduo)
- Anger – irritation, wrath, exasperation (3950 parorgismos)

Commentary- whenever we sin in righteous anger is when the sun sets upon our wrath and the true cause of our anger is concealed in darkness; thus, our anger can easily be misinterpreted as having a wicked purpose.

Jesus Christ, in Whom there is no darkness and agape-loves us immeasurably, is very willing and able to bear our righteous anger with us.

Verse 27

“And do not give the devil an opportunity.”

- Give – put (1325 didomi)
- Devil – slanderer, false accuser (1228 diabolos)

In the spiritual we are stamped as belonging to Jesus Christ (as well as Jesus belonging to us), and by extension belonging to the Spirit of God as well as God our Father.

Commentary- we can be renewed and restored to be compassionate to one another, forgiving one another of sins committed against each other- even to the great extent to which God in Christ Jesus has forgiven us.

The power to do this is in the shed blood of Jesus Christ for each one of us: since Jesus refused to come down from the cross until all our sins have been atoned for and conquered,

We can now have our sins as well as every sin committed against us taken away, separated from us!

Jesus Christ constantly advocates on our behalf today!

- Christ – the Anointed One, Messiah (5547 Christos)
- Loved – divinely loved, sacrificially loved (25 agapao)

Jesus' willing (though hard-decided) sacrifice of Himself was done in flawless obedience to the Father, and was truly that sweet, refreshing aroma purging out the stench of sin.

Verse 3

“But immorality or any impurity or greed must not even be named among you, as is proper among saints;

Verse 5

Commentary- not one of the types of persons described above has any inherent authority in the Kingdom of Christ and God; such have not been cleansed by the Blood of Christ.

Yet Jesus is very able to draw such near- by His Blood- to save, cleanse, change, and renew into His Kingdom.

The Kingdom of Christ and God is truly His Kingdom of Light, Life, and Agape-love!

Verse 7

“Therefore do not be partakers with them;”

- Partakers – joint sharers (4830 summetochos)
